Patricia Esposito Receives The Villanova University Loyalty Award

VILLANOVA, Pa. – Patricia Esposito, ’80 CLAS, of Morristown, New Jersey has been named the 2016 recipient of the Villanova University Loyalty Award. Founded in 1932, the award is the oldest in Villanova University’s history and is awarded annually to a Villanova alumnus/a who has rendered distinguished service to the University.

Esposito has served Villanova University through a number of roles over several years. She is a member of the Villanova University Alumni Association Board of Directors and the Villanova University Club of North Central Jersey. She received the inaugural Reunion Volunteer Service Award for her longtime leadership on the Class of 1980 Reunion Committees. Esposito is part of the Alumni Recruitment Network - College Fair Volunteer for Villanova in North Jersey and also is a former member of the Villanova Parents Ambassador Committee. She and her husband are members of the Caritas Society which recognizes donors to the University for 20 or more consecutive years.

Esposito serves her local community as a member of the Board of TeenPride, Inc., an organization that provides counseling services and maintains a Teen Center for at-risk teens in Morristown, N.J. An insurance broker with Marsh USA, Inc., Esposito is married to Jim Esposito, CPA ’79 VSB. They are members of Villanova University’s Presidents Club and have three children; Connor ‘10 VSB, Emily ’13 VSB and Reilly ’16 CLAS.

Additional information about the award is available at alumni.villanova.edu/loyalty.

About Villanova University: Since 1842, Villanova University’s Augustinian Catholic intellectual tradition has been the cornerstone of an academic community in which students learn to think critically, act compassionately and succeed while serving others. There are more than 10,000 undergraduate, graduate and law students in the University’s six colleges – the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, the Villanova School of Business, the College of Engineering, the College of Nursing, the College of Professional Studies and the Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law. As students grow intellectually, Villanova prepares them to become ethical leaders who create positive change everywhere life takes them. For more, visit www.villanova.edu.
